THE TYPEWRITER & NOTICING PEACE

Our theme for Lent has been Noticing Peace. In order to share with one another where and when we are each Noticing Peace, a typewriter has been placed in the Narthex and we invite you to type anything you like related to Peace and Noticing Peace. It could be a word, or a short reflection. You might bring in a quote, or write about something that you noticed here at Light of Christ. Maybe you want to type a response to the person who typed before you. Leave whatever you type to be anonymous. As a piece of paper gets filled, please pull it out and save it in the basket, and load the typewriter with another sheet of paper. We will be using the wisdom that we accumulate in future bulletins, perhaps in our Good Friday liturgy, and on our social media sites (Facebook and Instagram). The typewriter will be available throughout Lent. Let us share with one another how we are Noticing Peace this Lent, and maybe spend some time with a young person who may not have ever seen a typewriter before. If you have any questions, please see Fr. Teri. Thanks to Marlene and Rick Rogers for lending us their typewriter.

MONDAY EVENING LENTEN DISCUSSION

The Monday evening Lenten discussion series will end with an overview of the book, The Last Week, written by scripture scholars Marcus Borg and John Dominic Crossan. Using the book's framework, members of the LOC community will walk us through the events of Holy Week through the perspective of Mark's Gospel. Crossan and Borg bring us into the week's events with interesting historical detail and moving scriptural passages and stories. It isn't necessary to have read the book to participate; the panelists will share the highlights of the book with you and help you enter more fully into the profound events of the week ahead.

Join us on Monday, April 15, 7:00-8:30 PM, in the Fireside Room. All are welcome.
