Opening Prayer:

Teri: Let us pray..... God, through your Word and your grace, guide us. Help us to understand how our thoughts and prayers become grace in action. Break us free from anything that holds us back from doing Your Will, and challenge us to be a community where your Light shines.

In Jesus' name we pray: Amen.

Teri: Let us all be seated, as we listen to our Scripture again as if for the first time.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading:

Our First Reading is from the Prophet Isaiah (58:7-10)

Share your bread with those who are hungry,
and shelter homeless poor people;

clothe those who are naked,
and do not hide from the needs
of your own flesh and blood.

Do this and your light will shine like the dawn,
your healing will break forth like lightning!

Your integrity will go before you and the glory of ADONAI will be your rearguard.

Cry, and ADONAI will answer;
call, and ADONAI will say, “I am here”—
provided you remove from your midst all oppression,
finger pointing, and malicious talk.

If you give yourself to the hungry
and satisfy the needs of the afflicted,
then your light will rise in the darkness,
and your shadows will become like noon.

This has been a Reading from Prophet Isaiah.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 112 : spoken response: For the upright, Our God shines like a lamp in the dark.

Second Reading:

A Reading from the First Letter to the Corinthians (2:1-5)

As for myself, sisters and brothers, when I came to you I did not come proclaiming God’s testimony with any particular eloquence or wisdom. No, I determined that while I was with you I would know nothing but Jesus Christ—Christ crucified. When I came among you, it was in weakness and fear, and with much trepidation. My message and my preaching did not rest on philosophical arguments, but on the convincing power of the Spirit. As a consequence, your faith rests not on human wisdom, but on the power of God.

This has been a reading from the First Letter to the Corinthians.
Thanks be to God.

Final REFRAIN

Gospel Reading:

Alleluia, Alleluia.

Alleluia, Alleluia.

Ter. May Christ be with you all. And also with you.

Teri: A Reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew (5:13-16)

Glory to You, O God.

Jesus said to the disciples, "You are the salt of the earth. But what if salt were to lose its flavor? How could you restore it? It would be fit for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.

"You are the light of the world. You do not build a city on a hill, then try to hide it, do you? You do not light a lamp, then put it under a bushel basket, do you? No, you set it on a stand where it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, your light must shine before others so that they may see your good acts and give praise to your Abba God in heaven."

This has been a reading from the Gospel according to Matthew.

Praise to you, Jesus the Christ.

Homily: Teri

Teri: Blessed are you, Loving God of all Creation, through your goodness we have this bread and this wine and other food from our cupboards to place on your tables. Work of earth and human hands. May these become our spiritual food and drink. Blessed be God forever.

Teri: Blessed are you, Loving God of all Creation. Through your goodness we have these gifts to place on your table. May they become the Light of Christ in your world. Blessed by God forever.

Teri: Pray my sisters and brothers, my family, that these our gifts, our lives may continue to be blessed by our Loving God.

Teri: Let us all rise in body or spirit.

Teri: The peace of our God be with you all. And also with you.

Teri: Open your hearts. We open them to our God.

Teri: Let us give thanks to our Loving God. It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Eucharistic Prayer:

(Adapted, from www.rockies.net, Rev. Richard Fairchild, 2004)

Teri:

“Gracious God,
you have so richly blessed us with life,
with love and joy,
with hope in the midst of despair.
Help us to be the salt of the earth.
Help us to be the light of the world,
sharing with others that which we have received,
boldly proclaiming the good news of your love,
finding the seeds of your kingdom within us
and letting your way grow in our lives and throughout the world.”
(John W. Vest)

Now with those who are blessed; with the meek and the mourning, with the peacekeepers and the poor in spirit, with the choirs of angels, the shepherds who sing with them, and all of creation, we are glad to sing your praise:

THE WORDS OF INSTITUTION

Teri: God of Water and Wine, You are most Holy. Send your Holy Spirit upon us, and what we do here gathered at tables throughout your world knowing that all tables are Your Table. May we be touched by your Spirit, to be signs of love and peace to one another, and to the world. + Let also your Spirit come upon these gifts of bread and wine, food before us, to make them holy so that they may become for us the Body and Blood of our brother, Jesus the Christ.

Today, we gather to remember that on the night before he died, Jesus ate with his followers and his friends. We recall how he took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it, he broke it, and gave it to them saying - "Take this all of you and eat it. This is my body which will be given up for you."

That same night, Jesus also took the cup filled with wine, and after giving thanks, passed it to his disciples, saying, "Take this all of you and drink from it. This is the cup of my blood. The blood of the new and everlasting covenant. It will be shed for you and for all so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me."

Teri: Let us proclaim the mystery of faith.....

Mass of Welcoming Rising You Revealed New Life

MJS
Text by
Fr. Teri Harroun

Intro

Dy - ing You de - stroyed our death ris - ing You re - vealed new life Oh — Je - sus you are here and yet to come.

Teri:

Together with God, we are the Body of Christ. And together we follow Christ that we might be a light in God's kin-dom.

Beloved God, Creator of all,
You have invited each of us here today,
And so we gather at your tables.
We come from many places, differing in age, differing in race,
differing in abilities and gender,
differing in orientation, politics and even religion.
As we come together around your tables,
Knowing that all tables are Your Table, O God,
we discover that our differences are not something we tolerate
but that our differences are indeed a blessing,
A beatitude in our midst;

God, the more difference we bring,
the more diversity we honor,

the more we live into being
A Boldly Inclusive Catholic Church,
Then the more fully we experience
the presence of the sacred and the holy
Of our God, in our midst.

In a society divided by race, gender, class, politics, ideology, sexual orientation, and so many other labels we alone have created, remind us God that we are created in your image, each of us a beautiful reflection of you, each of us your beloved child.

Help us then to end our conflicts and wars, our racism and phobias; help us to be peacemakers and agents of reconciliation

We also remember in our prayers our chosen shepherds, especially Bishop Kae and Bishop Paul. May they know Your presence being birthed into the world in new ways through them.

God, we share with you our prayers for our beloved dead. We are confident that you remember our ancestors who have gone to their rest, and now rest in your eternal embrace. May we one day join them, living into the fullness of the communion of saints and the Eternal Love that is you.

Teri: Together let us say:

Through Christ, with Christ, in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours all loving God, forever and ever.
